

Restaurants for Change

eat well. do good.

I want to tell you about an event coming up on Wednesday, October 20th's Restaurants for Change is the third running of this fundraiser for the Nelson Community Food Centre. We are partnering with twelve local restaurants, and the concept is simple: Go out to dinner at one of the participating restaurants and they'll donate what you pay for food to us in the form of a donation.

You get to enjoy a great dinner—and support the Nelson Community Food Centre at the same time. The participating restaurants are: Broken Hill, Cantina del Centro, Kootenay Tamil Kitchen, Louie's Steakhouse, Library Lounge, Main Street Diner, Marzano, Outer Clove, Pitchfork Eatery, The Black Cauldron, The General Store, Yum Son. Click on one of preceding links or visit our webpage for more info and to make a reservation. Note that Outer Clove and Kootenay Tamil Kitchen are both doing take-out only. Other restaurants may have eat inside and outside options. Call the restaurant you are thinking of for more info. Read all about it in the Nelson Star

Just one more little thing.

If you are like me, you might put off any gift shopping you do for the holidays until the last minute. Here's your chance to get ahead of the game and help us run our programs at the same time. Local photographer, Tom Weager, has put together a lovely calendar of many familiar locations around town. 25% of all sales of this Scenic Nelson calendar will be coming to us at the Community Food Centre. Shop early and support the 'Centre. Click here for more info.

That's it for now. I realize I'm not sharing as much news with you as I'd like. I wanted to share the Restaurants for Change information in a timely manner, so that's my focus. There will be more news and updates in the next newsletter. I promise.

I hope to see you out at your favourite restaurant next Wednesday eve.

Sincerely,
