

Our Good Food Bank is moving. Temporarily.

Dear smartname,

We are excited to be starting the renovation of the community kitchen in the lower hall of the Nelson United Church. Because the kitchen and environs will be unusable, our Good Food Bank will be offered out of the Nelson Covenant Church for two to three months, starting March 1.

The Covenant Church team has been kind enough to offer us the use of their basement and the Good Food Bank will be open Tuesdays 12-2 and Wednesdays, 1-4. We have communicated this to our program participants and we are hoping for a smooth transition for the time that we are there. To learn a little more about the move, click here to check out our webpage on the topic.

Donate Today

To help us through the home-stretch of our renovation, consider making a donation. To learn more and show your support, hit the button above or click here.

NCFC Director Profile - Tara Keirn

We are starting a new series here where we celebrate our Board of Directors. Our first featured director is Tara Keirn, who has been the treasurer of our board for almost eight years. Tara is the Senior Manager, Finance and Credit at the Nelson & District Credit Union (NDCU). She values being a part of something that makes a difference and has really enjoyed seeing the organization cycle through one Strategic Plan (achieving the goals) and launching into another. The NDCU also has been a significant financial supporter of our kitchen renovation. Thanks to the NDCU for this and thanks to Tara for her valued contribution to the board.

Thanks for reading. While we are in our temporary location, we'll still be reachable by phone—or you can come and visit us at the Covenant Church during open hours. If you'd like to hear more about our kitchen reno and how you can help support it, call me at 250 551 0305.

Sincerely,

Andrew Creighton
Community Relations Manager
(On behalf of the Nelson CFC team)

PS: We know you already may be a supporter and, for that, we thank you. If you'd like to specifically help with our kitchen reno, click here.

We have moved over to a new emailing system so my fingers are crossed that this all goes well here. If you'd like to continue getting our email newsletter every 4-6 weeks, great! No action required. If you'd rather not, we're sorry to see you go. Please click the unsubscribe link below.

Copyright © 2022 Nelson Community Food Centre, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
602 Silica Street, Nelson BC. V1L 4N1

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can unsubscribe from this list.

